Week 5 at Riverside!

Another eventful week—jam-packed with fun learning experiences!

On Monday, Y2 (Bluebells) jumped in their time machine and interviewed Florence Nightingale.

Tuesday saw Y6 making their own modern day Morse code with Hi-Impact and then on Wednesday they interviewed two evacuees from WWII; one of them, Mr. Egan's mum, was actually evacuated from Riverside! They will be finishing off their week, which has also involved them swimming, with a team-building trip to Barnstondale! Phew!

At the other end of the school, our Otter class have performed the final part of the Gingerbread Man. Please catch it if you can on our Twitter account. Spoiler alert - it does not end well for him!

The SLT had a great time doing their 'maths learning walk' there were some very exciting problem solving going on. Our aspirational talks continued with Amelia-Joy's Mum or 'Super Amy' as she is now known as, coming in to explain all about the wonderful world of midwifery. Here she is with her fan club! And... better late than never here is the picture of last week's medical hero Mr. Parson's with Bogdan...

Acorn Class

Our amazing new Acorn class is finally finished and so from Monday the children will be coming in via the wooden gate by the main entrance at the front of the school . We can't wait to invite you in! Thank you for your patience.

Exciting News!

And finally, we have been shortlisted for 'Inspirational School of The Year ' at the Educate Awards for the wonderful work we all did as a community during the last most challenging of years.

Also, our marvellous Mrs. Bentley has been shortlisted for 'Teacher of The Year' we are extremely proud of our very own Mary Poppins and all of the Riverside Team.

One last thing...
